Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

• Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)

• Form 1099-C (canceled debt)

• Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

BUSINESS CLASSIFICATION CERTIFICATION

Please review the business classifications defined on the attachment and complete the certification below. Check all categories, which apply to your business, sign, and date the certification.

Please return the completed certification (This page and the IRS Form W-9 attached) as soon as possible.

- Both prime contractors and first-tier subcontractors must report the names and total compensation of their five highest compensated executives (executives including officers, managing partners or any other employees in management positions), if during the preceding completed fiscal year, the sub received:
 - A. 80% or more of its annual gross revenues from Federal contracts (and subcontracts), loans, grants and (sub grants) and cooperative agreements; AND
 - B. The company received $25 million or more of its annual gross revenues from Federal contracts and (subcontracts), loans, grants (and sub grants) and cooperative agreements; AND
 - C. The company does not already publicly report executive compensation through SEC or IRS; AND
 - D. This contract or subcontract is valued at $25,000.00 or more;
- Any contractor or subcontractor meeting all of the above criteria must report its executive compensation.

If subcontracts meet the above criteria and are not exempt, ER must gather subcontractor's information of the following and post to the www.fsrc.gov. Please be aware that all information collected on the FSR website will be visible on a public website at www.USASpending.gov.

Required information is as follows:

- The name and DUNS Number of the subcontractor and its parent
- The date and amount of the subcontract award
- A general description of the products or services
- The subcontract number
- The subcontractor's address and place of performance
- The the names and total compensation of their five highest compensated executives (executives including officers, managing partners or any other employees in management positions).
- The prime contract and order number
- The applicable NAICS code

Therefore the following page will document the required information.

In order to comply with government regulations this company requires these documents be requested from government and non government vendors on an equal basis.

We want you to receive payment as soon as possible, but we regret that we cannot release payment until all needed items and signatures are received.

Please complete the certification below and return with your bid. Additionally please sign and date the certification.
